Memories

Springtime

Fresh blossoms cast fragrance...
Soft melodies play;
Evening breezes blow gently,
It is springtime...It's May.

A strange air of mystery
Envelopes this night...
Every star is a charm...
Casting magical light...

In a velvety sky
Sprays of silver are strewn...
Tumbling endlessly downward
As the light of the moon.

Soon the magic will end,
And the moonlight will go...
But this prom is forever
And I'll treasure it so...
